D) Admission Process:

Admission is on the basis of MITID method of selection, which extends beyond the students previous academic qualifications. The MITID Admission Committee systematically seeks evidence of the perception, attitude, aptitude, achievement and motivation essential for a challenging and satisfying design career. The objective of the tests and the interviews is to ascertain the above qualities.

The Admission Committee decides the procedures, grades and weightage every year. The norms for the selection are the sole prerogative of the Admission Committee and the decision of the Admission Committee and the Management in any of the matters concerning the admission process and selection will be final. Any direct or indirect attempt to influence the admission committee or its members, academic office bearers or management will lead to the automatic disqualification of the candidate(s).

D.1) Weightages for each stage of Admissions Process

Design Aptitude Test (MITID-DAT)	Studio Test	Personal Interview
25	25	50

*Note: Only candidates who have appeared for all the three stages of the tests will be considered eligible for the Final Merit List.

D.2) The admission process is in two phases:

Phase - 1: MITID-DAT (Design Aptitude Test) conducted at various centres across the country.

Design Aptitude Test (DAT) will be conducted at various test centres across India. (Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Bhopal, Chandigarh, Chennai, Delhi, Goa, Hyderabad, Jaipur, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai, Nagpur, Pune)

MITID reserves its right to add, change or cancel any of these centres.

Based on scores obtained from MITID-DAT, shortlisted candidates will be called for second phase.

The number of candidates to be shortlisted for the second round will be four times of the sanctioned intake (minimum) or more depending upon the number of eligible candidates.

The score of the last candidate in the list will be the cut off score for the open category candidates

Relaxation in Cut-Off scores for candidates in reserved categories will be 10% less than cut off score for open category.

Phase – 2: Studio Test and Personal Interview at MITID campus in Pune.

The second phase of the admission procedure will consist of studio tests followed by personal interviews at Institute in Pune.

All those candidates called for the second phase are required to attend the studio tests and interview, which completes the process of selection.

D.3) Merit List Announcement

The Final Merit list for the selected candidates will be announced on MITID website. No separate call letters will be sent to the selected candidates.

D.4) Tie break policy

In case of tie break (the total marks scored by two or more candidates are the same), then the following tie-break policy will be used for awarding ranks:

- Higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in phase 2 (studio test & personal interview combine).
- If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in personal interview.
- If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Design Aptitude Test.
